

Did the Climate Change in Paris? What's Next? A conversation with Mark Hertsgaard and local activists

Wednesday, March 2, 2016

Refreshments: 6:30-7PM

Program: 7-9PM

Hear firsthand accounts as our "alternative" COP attendee panelists discuss the road ahead for climate activists, the opportunities and "false solutions" that may arise in 2016 and, most importantly, what you can do in the months ahead.

green
Chautauqua

First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo
72 Kensington Road
San Anselmo, CA 94960

Keynote

Mark Hertsgaard, celebrated Environmental Correspondent for The Nation magazine and author of Hot: Living Through the Next 50 Years on Earth

Panelists

Elizabeth Ferguson, Ph.D., founder of Climate Compassion

Emilie Anna Reaves, Food, faith, & systems change activist

Jeremy Lent, writer, founder of the non-profit Liology Institute

Suggested donation of $8-$10

Refreshments provided from 6:30-7:00 by

